The Times (S. 19) Dispatch

Business Office ..... Times-Dispatch Building

One Six Three One Dully with Sunday ...... $6.00 $3.00 $1.50 .55 Daily without Sunday ..... 4.00 2.00 1.00 .35 tindsy edition only ...... 100 1.00 .50 .25 us Simes. Dispatch Carrier Delivery Ser-One Week. with Sunday ...... 15 cents

recond-class matter under act of Congress

DNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1913.

as insistence that the Glass cur-

by business opinion and by acreed upon. Shall controversy delayed by such a quar. fresh case of Augustus Peabody Gardthis extra session, when the in- Governor of Massa husetts. upon the subject, how will specific platform of his own fashionsy be determined at a future regular ing, he prefers to go before the elec-es the opposition and why? What which he has not had the opportunity ation of a measure of the utmost fuses to be confined to the platform begun to bestir itself.

The state of the control of the cont

but it was noted that he was the very glass of fashlon at the assembly of When we read the mathematical Reckon everybody will admit that the Virginia Press Association last dope on the world's series we don't Richmond is about the whole State this week, for all the world looking to be know whether we are enjoying our week. the owner of most of the real estate selves or playing chess.

a new station for you to come to. comment.

INTERPRETING SOCIAL CHANGE The Railroad Y. M. C. A. deserves both praise and support in its effort to sity annual are to be found group photomake the meaning of some of our ad- graphs of county clubs-organizations variced social thinking clear to the of the students from the various coun-Washington Bureau.......Munsey Building average man. It will conduct a series ties having considerable representaof Sunday talks to men upon such tion at the institution in question. So modern themes as "Purity and Mar- far as our knowledge goes, these assoriage," "The Workingman and the ciations exist for no other purpose than It seems but yesterday when I Was full of pep and was young and Church," "The Need for Poverty" and to have their pictures taken to swell "Who Must Enforce the Law." Such the annual's illustrations. They do not diffusion of truth is a vital need for a function beyond that.

slow and difficult.

convinced.

progressive community. Public senti- The University of South Carolina has social change, and unless the great for something of service, and the plan ment is, in the end, the support of all determined to make county clubs stand ment is, in the end, the support of all social change, and unless the great bulk of the public is told what the changes mean, natural inertia and conchanges me

In almost every college and univerman who reads and keeps in close touch many angles. They meet frequently in with the currents of national thought, a sort of seminar to consider their hensible. Yet what does the word structively they debate the question, "eugenics" suggest to the man who is How can our county be improved and the present session of living by hard work? He may dis- quickened? To the county's social wel-President pursues a miss it as some hifalutin nonsense, fare deep attention is devoted. President pursues a miss it as some hifalutin nonsense, lare user the solution of the notion would make him a hy anlightened nolicy are studied.

The not as young as I used to be where successfully employed or ordered hy anlightened nolicy are studied.

The not as young as I used to be where successfully employed or ordered hy anlightened nolicy are studied.

There is too little of this popular | Uncommon service can be rendered exposition for plain people in Richmond. There is not enough discussion of vital topics for the worker. We need some of the spirit of education embers have been graduated and have differences of opinion mond. There is not enough discussion velopment in colleges of this "know for citizenship found in larger cities, returned in large number to the The women's fashions are naught to are pledged. All of This effort of the Y. M. C. A. to inter- bosom of their native counties they d on the essentials, and pret new ideas to the people is better will have a common basis of association are reinforced by banking than much high-brow wisdom repeated for translating the theories of their to the men and women who are already clubs into practice; they will have a ts disagreement only as to the character in all details of the character in all details of the requisite to apply the printer.

THE DECADENT PARTY CONVENTION.

THE DECADENT PARTY CONVENTION. common impulse to fulfill their social rect primary system of nominating Chamber of Commerce and other civic ent on principles of action? candidates is to be found in the very organizations do for the city.

these details cannot be settled ner, regular Republican candidate for unit in our system of society. Poliest of Congress and of the nation is Nominated in a primary upon a tigation have lately declared that counend is served by dilatory con- of concurrence or rejection, and re- ments the average county has hardly

THE CHANNEL TUNNEL QUESTION. That body would not incorporate with. of illimitable opportunities for service t the long-mooted English Chan- in the platform it promulgated certain in the high cause of the common good.

which has just been adopted for his guidance by a convention of his party. That body would not incorporate within the deficiency of illimitation operations and in the high cause of the convention in the high cause of the high cause of the convention in the high cause of the convention in the high cause of the high cause of the convention in the high cause of the high ca yseeds have not style to not is there a middle compremise of gov- sisters of the Virginia scribes are a en, and don't need to," proclaims Ed. eroment regulation komewnat similar perpetual reminder of the old French tor Ryland, of the Southside Sentinel, to railroad legislation? The "feeler" saying that "a heautiful woman is the

Just wait, folks. In:1922 we'll have clothes, both in the clothes and the again for the same job. Does Alabama

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

By ROY K. MOULTON.

Growing Old. worked all day and I danced all night,

And I got up feeling out of sight.
Hut how, if I stay out once a week
My head feels dull and my joints all

The county clubs in that university of the student and the thinker, the nan who reads and keeps in close touch with the currents of national thought, a sort of seminar to consider their.

The county clubs in that university of the student in the county clubs in that university of the student and the thinker, the study their respective counties from many angles. They meet frequently in high; Tis no time since I was a gay young build. with the currents of national thought, a sort of seminar to consider their blade, the theories of sugenics or other advanced ideals are plain and compre- governmental and social phases. Con- Leb others go out and make the rd rather sit home and smoke and "eugenies" suggest to the man who is occupied chiefly with trying to get a living by hard work? He may disquickened? To the county's social welliving by hard work? He may disquickened? To the county's social wellist is some hifalutin nonsense, when, in fact, a clear, logical explana- Agencies for county upbuilding else. It is not as the first row seat At the musical shows, but am more discreet. And so, it is very plain to see I'm not as young as I used to be.

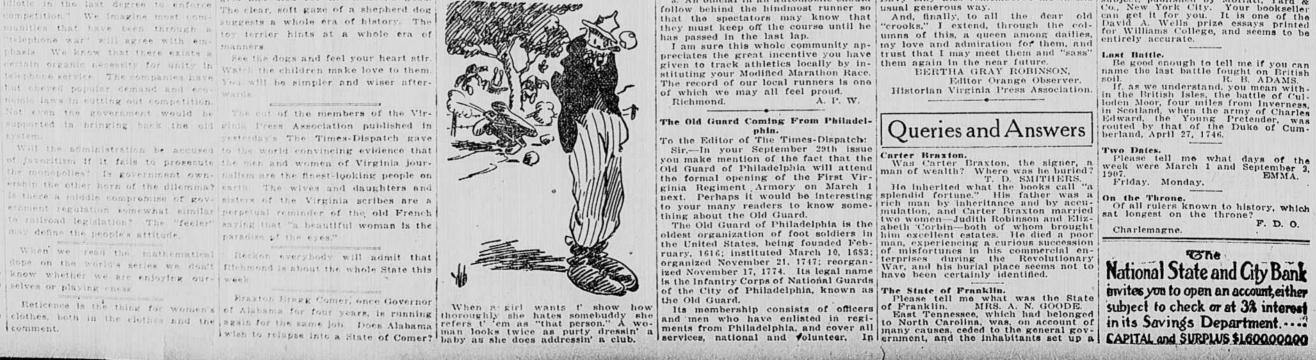

And another sign is on hand. Gee

The Diary of a Bonehead.

"I will not be home to dinner to-ght," said I to my wife over the better than that."
"Well, Jones wanted me to stay downtown to dinner with him and talk over a business matter."

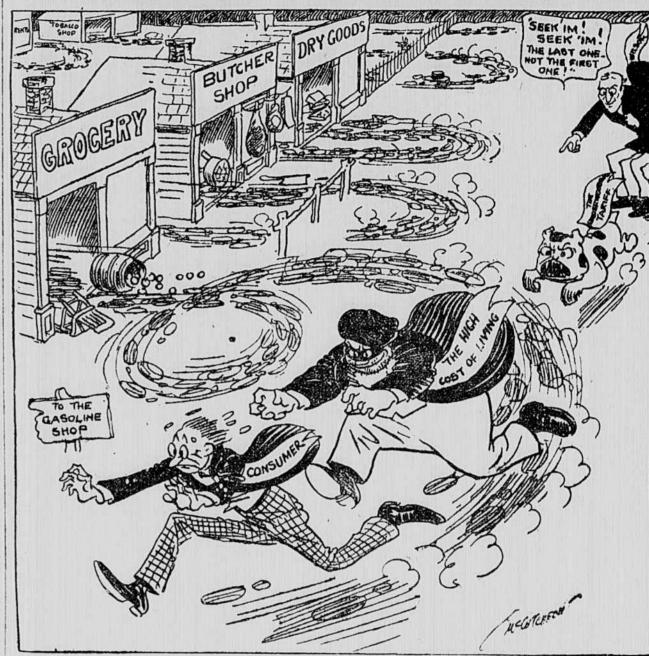

come again, angel," snapped my "Mr. Jones just went by on his home." I was on hand immediately with ing, he prefers to go before the electrorate free-handed, declines the campaign direction of a committee, which is or may become under obligations in which he has not had the opportunity of concurrence or rejection, and respect to the platform begun to bestir itself.

antly and efficiently serve the governantly serve the governa

WILL THE NEW TARIFF RESCUE HIM FROM HIS NEMESIS? By John T. McCutcheon.

[Copyright: 1918: By John T. McCutcheon.]

as a sop to popular favor, expended some two or three thousand dollars in grading and furnishing with various playing in the street proceeds as unplaying in the street procee